

Healthy bodies support healthy minds!

On September 23th the Latimer Lane School community will celebrate a new school year by with the fourth annual “Run Back to School 5k and Fun Run”. The Latimer Lane PTO will host this community-wide event to inspire children and adults to energize their bodies and their minds for the new school year.

The Fun Run will start with a huge group warm up that feels more like a fun dance, followed by a mad dash through sparkling confetti, over a huge stretch of bubble wrap, and then a silly string attack, bubbles or foam and down through the balloon arch.

Participants ready for more will enjoy a 5K run starting at the school, through neighborhoods, looping on the beautiful greenway and back to the school. First place winners by grade, gender and age division up to 70 will win a Little City Pizza certificate.
